

18 April 1952

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

STAT [redacted] entered on duty with the General Counsel's office of the Central Intelligence Agency on 25 January 1951 and left this assignment on 18 April 1952. During this entire period she has been under my personal supervision. She is leaving this assignment to travel with her family, and her departure is considered a loss by this office.

STAT [redacted] performed her duties with diligence and accuracy and good attention to detail. She was willing to undertake anything assigned to her and she was well liked by her associates in the office.

I am happy to commend [redacted] for her performance of duties here as she has been of great assistance in carrying out the work of my office.

STAT
